

Sonido Libre

Soulful live music with timeless style.

Sonido Libre was founded in April 2026. First meeting through Calgary's vibrant jam scene, Sonido Libre's members possess an eclectic range of backgrounds and influences.

From bebop and bossa nova, to funk and soul, Sonido Libre seeks to blend these sounds into a soulful, immersive, and intimate live experience. Listeners of Sade, Erykah Badu, Antonio Carlos Jobim, and Esperanza Spalding will recognize their influence in our music.

Available for bookings in Calgary and the Alberta area.

About the Band

Sonido Libre is a Calgary-based ensemble born from the city's vibrant jam session community. The band came together organically through live collaboration and a shared appreciation for soulful and dynamic performances.

Bringing in our shared Latin American heritage through songwriting in both Spanish and English, and combining it with the band's bebop, bossa nova, funk and soul influences, Sonido Libre is carving out a unique space in the local music scene.
